IRS Announces New Employee Benefits Limits for 2013

The Internal Revenue Service has recently announced cost-of-living adjustments applicable to dollar limitations for retirement plans (and other items) for 2013. Many of the retirement plan limitations will change for 2013 because the increase in the cost-of-living index met the statutory thresholds that trigger their adjustment. However, other limitations will remain unchanged because the increase in the index did not meet the statutory thresholds that trigger their adjustment.

Plan documents (particularly retirement plan documents) often anticipate cost of living adjustments and do not have to be amended for these adjustments. Nevertheless, administrators of plans should review their documents to reconfirm the documents automatically incorporate the adjustments. If the documents do not contemplate the adjustments, plan documents will need to be amended to remain tax-compliant. Plan administrators should also communicate with their plan service providers (including payroll providers) to ensure the new limits will be used in plan operations beginning in 2013.

<sup>1</sup> The Medicare tax rate is 1.45% on wages (for employees) and 2.90% on self-employment income (for self-employed individuals). However, the Patient Protection and Affordable Care Act imposes an additional .09% Medicare tax on wages and self-employment income for tax years beginning after December 31, 2012. The additional tax applies to individuals with compensation in excess of certain threshold amounts ($200,000 for single taxpayers, $250,000 for married taxpayers filing a joint return, and $125,000 for married couples filing separate returns). The new Medicare tax rate on wages and self-employment income in excess of the threshold amounts will be 2.35% for employees and 3.8% for self-employed individuals.
