State-by-State Wage and Hour Law Summary

Through Butzel Long's involvement with the Wage and Hour Defense Institute, the WHDI's annually updated State-by-State Wage and Hour Law Summary is now available to our clients. The Wage and Hour Defense Institute is comprised of highly talented and experienced wage and hour defense attorneys from 21 law firms across the nation. The WHDI serves as a nationwide network and meeting ground for top-tier practitioners to engage in professional development in what has become a highly nuanced area of the law, and also to become an established resource for employers on wage and hour matters. Each member was selected for membership in the WHDI based on his or her individual skills and experience representing management in the defense of wage and hour litigation. Butzel Long is proud to be one of the founding firms of the WHDI. Both Robert Boonin and Rebecca Davies are WHDI members, and Rob currently serves as its Chair-Elect. This summary of state wage and hour laws should serve as a valuable desktop resource for human resource professionals, particularly for employers with employees in multiple states.

For assistance regarding wage and hour compliance, contact Rob Boonin, Rebecca Davies, or any of the other attorneys in Butzel Long's Labor and Employment Law Group.
