Justin G. Klimko is a Shareholder practicing in Butzel's Detroit office. He is President of the firm and serves on its Board of Directors. Mr. Klimko has extensive experience in securities regulation, corporate financing, mergers and acquisitions, corporate governance and general corporate matters, fields in which he has practiced since 1980.

Justin G. Klimko is a Shareholder practicing in Butzel's Detroit office. He is President of the firm and serves on its Board of Directors. He graduated from Duke University Law School (J.D., with distinction, 1980) and Ohio University (B.A., summa cum laude, 1977). Mr. Klimko has extensive experience in securities regulation, corporate financing, mergers and acquisitions, corporate governance and general corporate matters, fields in which he has practiced since 1980.

Mr. Klimko has substantial experience in planning, negotiating and implementing various types of merger and acquisition transactions, representing both acquiring and acquired companies, including asset sales, straight mergers, reverse triangular mergers, share purchases, share exchange transactions and going-private transactions. He has represented companies making venture round investments as well as representing new companies in startup, general organization and operation and several rounds of venture capital financing. He has been lead counsel on many national and cross-border acquisition transactions, representing both buyers and sellers in transactions involving both strategic and financial buyers. His experience includes premerger notification filings and analysis under U.S. merger control regulations such as the Hart-Scott Rodino Antitrust Improvements Act and the Committee on Foreign Investments in the U.S. (CFIUS).

He also has substantial experience in securities regulation matters for publicly and privately held companies. This includes analysis of and compliance with Sarbanes-Oxley regulations; public offerings (including IPOs); proxy statement preparation for annual meetings as well as for acquisition transactions; preparation and review of periodic issuer filings reports by certain insiders; preparation of Schedule 13E-3 statements in connection with going private transactions; analysis of Rule 144 issues for resales of securities acquired in non-public transactions; Regulation FD compliance; and general analysis and advice regarding registration, reporting and disclosure issues. He also has extensive experience in private placements and secured and unsecured financing transactions, including experience in venture capital financing for early-stage companies and co-venture transactions involving participation in pre-IPO private financing.

Mr. Klimko has represented special committees and standing committees of corporate boards investigating alleged financial mismanagement by corporate officers; accounting restatement issues; claims alleged by shareholders seeking to commence derivative litigation; and the financial fairness of going private proposals from company management. He also has advised standing board committees in the performance of their duties.

Mr. Klimko taught corporation law for five years as an Adjunct Professor at the University of Detroit Mercy Law School, frequently lectures and authors articles on business law subjects and has served as general editor of a treatise on Michigan Business Forms and a contributing author for a treatise on Michigan contract law.

Mr. Klimko is a past chair of the State Bar of Michigan Business Law Section. He co-chairs the Section's Corporate Laws Committee, responsible for monitoring and modifying Michigan's corporate statute. In that capacity he has been actively involved in the development of Michigan's corporate law, leading efforts to prepare and gain legislative approval of several rounds of amendments to Michigan's Business Corporation Act. He has also been a significant contributor to amicus briefs on business law topics filed by the Business Law Section at the invitation of the Michigan Court of Appeals and Michigan Supreme Court, further helping to clarify business law in Michigan.

He also has chaired the Section's Ad Hoc Committee on Legal Opinions, which has issued reports to address opinion issues in business transactions, including issues specific to Michigan law. He participates in these efforts on a national basis as well, as a representative to the Working Group on Legal Opinions, a member of the ABA Committee on Legal Opinions and the sole Michigan member of the TriBar Opinion Committee, the leading national committee addressing opinions in business transaction.

Mr. Klimko is included in the publication The Best Lawyers in America and enjoys an AV rating from the Martindale-Hubbell rating system. He is rated one of Michigan's top Corporate/M&A attorneys by Chambers USA Guide of America's Leading Lawyers for Business and is listed in Michigan Super Lawyers (Mergers and Acquisitions).
