TROY, Mich. – Butzel attorney and shareholder Debra A. Geroux has been named as one of Michigan Lawyers Weekly's 2022 Honorees for "Influential Women of Law."

The awards program, previously known as "Women in the Law," honors women attorneys and judges for their excellent work on behalf of the justice system and for their clients, commitment to their communities and service to the profession. Geroux is one of 32 women attorneys who will be honored during a luncheon on September 23 and profiled in the September 26 edition of Michigan Lawyers Weekly.

Geroux is a Co-Chair of Butzel's Health Care Industry Team. She also is a member of the firm's Cybersecurity and Privacy Specialty Team, Government & Internal Investigations Team, and Litigation and Dispute Resolution Team.

Her healthcare practice focuses on health care compliance, cybersecurity and privacy, and statutory reporting obligations. She also assists health care practitioners in defense of state and federal debarment, fraud, waste and abuse investigations and litigation, licensing and credentialing, government and commercial payor audits and a host of other health care issues.

Moreover, Geroux has extensive experience in supply chain and source contracting for a large Michigan-based health system, including negotiations of its IT contracts. In September 2018, she earned her Certified in Healthcare Privacy Compliance (CHPC) designation from the Compliance and Certification Board. She also holds a Certified in Healthcare Compliance (CHC) designation, which she received in November 2012. Her representative clients include individual practitioners and group practices, hospitals, community mental health authorities, home health agencies, pharmacies and pharmaceutical
